ORDER GRANTING ACTING GENERAL COUNSEL'S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO SHOW CAUSE RE: RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO REOPEN THE RECORD

On March 20, 2013, Respondent filed its motion to reopen the record in these consolidated cases.

On March 21, 2013, I issued an Order to Show Cause (OSC) giving the parties until noon on March 28, 2013 to file a response to why Respondent's motion to reopen the record should not be granted.

On March 25, 2013, Acting General Counsel filed his unopposed motion for extension of time to show cause why the motion to reopen should not be granted from noon, on March 28, to noon, on April 4, 2013 "due to Counsel for the Acting General Counsel's pre-approved leave from the office." The motion also represents that Counsel for the Acting General Counsel "has requested the position of both parties and neither oppose this request."

For good cause found, Acting General Counsel's motion for extension of time to show cause is GRANTED and his response to my March 21, 2013 OSC is due to be served and filed by noon, on Thursday, April 4, 2013.
